MODERN WORLD HISTORY, 1815 - 1941

(Revised, 1942)

The following revised course in Modern World History, 1815-1941, will take the place of the course outlined on page 70 of Courses of Study and Examinations (Revised 1936) and amended in the Extracts from these courses reprinted in October, 1941. This revised course will be introduced in September, 1942.

Note—The course in Modern World History includes the geography relating to the History prescribed.

1. European History, 1815 to 1848: The peace settlement, its purpose and character—the Holy Alliance; Metternich's system and the aims of the Quadruple Alliance; the rise of nationalism and the conflict between liberalism and reaction to 1848; the results of the Revolutions of 1848.
2. European History, 1848 to 1875: the rise and fall of the Second Empire and the foundation of the Third Republic in France; Italian Unity—Mazzini, Garibaldi, Cavour; Bismarck and German unity.
3. The economic and social results of the Industrial Revolution in Great Britain; parliamentary and social reform in Great Britain and Ireland during the period.
4. The expansion and political development of the British Empire, 1815 to 1918.
5. A brief treatment of the following topics in the history of the United States: westward expansion; the causes of the Civil War; the Monroe Doctrine; expansion overseas.
